

Introduction to Audio Recording/Production

Saturdays 10 – 11 AM
September 25, 2010 – January 22, 2011
Instructor: Ray Chaput

Cost: $225 plus $20 registration fee
for new families

In this cutting-edge course, students will learn audio recording, editing and mixing as well as music production with synthesizers, sequencers and MIDI. Students will use professional microphones, recording systems and mixing equipment to make recordings and CDs, and will use state-of-the-art production equipment and software to produce their own compositions with a computer. Classes available for adults and students 8 and older.

Ray Chaput owns a recording studio and can frequently be seen recording CMSS events. A talented musician as well, he is the founding guitar player for the band Janet Ryan and Straight Up and has written and produced many songs for CDs.
